VERSE 1 & 2

I sought sin, but the sav-ior sought me, I ran towards what was so emp - ty. As I sought lies, but the truth sought me, I was de-ceived by the en - e - my. Though

I was filled with de-prav-it - y, Je - sus came, and he res - cued me.
all the lies had en - slaved me, the Word of Truth came to set me free.

CHORUS 1 & 2

You sought me, your blood has bought me, hal - le - lu - jah!

All glo - ry, all praise be to you, — God!

BRIDGE

And I can al - most be-lieve that a man would dare to die, for a ve - ry right - eous one who de - serves such sac - ri - fice. But I can't fa - thom _____ that God would look and see all the
